

2016 European Aviation Conference

The Economics and Public Policy Conference in Aviation

Changing Hub Dynamics: New Models & Airline Evolution

17-18 November 2016

Schiphol Airport, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

www.eac-conference.com

Conference highlights

CEO address

- Jos Nijhuis, CEO, Schiphol Group

Principal Debate: Are the benefits of aviation connectivity overstated?

Conference sessions:

- Airline networks and hub airports: what drives air transport?
- What are the success factors of hub management?
- The wider benefits of aviation connectivity
- Self-connection: will there be LCC hubs?
- Network carrier strategy: single or multiple hubs?
- New generation aircraft: hub building or hub competition?

Martin Kunz Memorial Lecture: Prof Anming Zhang, University British Columbia

- Implications of connectivity for airport capacity, prices & regulation.

Booking facility is now available online!

A booking facility is now available on the conference website
www.eac-conference.com.

SELECTED SPEAKERS	INSTITUTION
Jos Nijhuis	CEO, Schiphol Group
Amadeo Odoni	Massachusetts Institute Technology
Peter Griffiths	Head, Single Sky Performance Review Body
Jagoda Egeland	OECD & International Transport Forum
Professor Anming Zhang	University of British Columbia, Canada
Jonathan Saks	Head of Aviation, UK Transport Department
Bill Swan	Former Boeing Chief Economist
Brian Pierce	International Air Transport Association (IATA)

Event fees (incl. VAT)*

€495 including gala dinner

€420 excluding gala dinner

A reduced rate is applicable for members of GARS & the COST Action

€295 including gala dinner

€220 excluding gala dinner.

Sponsorship

Each year the conference organisers offer a schedule of sponsorship opportunities and associated benefits. Information from hans-martin.niemeier@hs.bremen.de

Media enquiries to:	Weitere Informationen:
Cathal Guiomard Ireland cguiomard@gmail.com +353-87-6395740	Prof. Frank Fichert Deutschland frank.fichert@gmx.de

* A limited number of student places are available on a first-come-first served basis

€175 including gala dinner

€100 excluding gala dinner