

Conference Announcement and Call for Papers

Air Transport and Regional Development (ATARD), European Aviation Conference, German Aviation Research Society (GARS), the Laboratory for Tourism Research and Studies (ETEM) and the Faculty of Law at the University of Vienna are pleased to invite academics, aviation practitioners, policy makers and other stakeholders to submit papers for the newly founded 1st

Aviation Management and Economics Conference (AMEC)

AMEC focuses on high quality research in air transport economics and neighboring fields. AMEC builds on the ATARD network and tries to encourage research in air transport and regional development. AMEC cooperates with European Aviation Conference as it will take place always one day before the EAC. While the EAC focuses on one policy issue, AMEC is open for all topics. AMEC cooperates with the EAC to strengthen the dialogue between theory and practice by poster sessions of young researchers, presentations of master program and research projects at the EAC. The conference will be held in Vienna on November 6 in conjunction with the EAC 2019 “Challenges and Innovation in Pricing and Revenues”, which will be held on November 7-8, 2019. The theme of AMEC will be ‘Current research and trends of air transport’.

Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

- Air Transport and Regional Development
- Airline and airport business models
- Air Traffic Management
- Hub and regional airports
- Airline economics and finance
- Air cargo
- Emerging and mature markets
- Sustainable aviation and environmental problems of aviation
- Aviation safety and security
- The role of ICT (including disruptive technologies)
- Aviation governance and regulation
- Air transport and tourism

Important information for Abstracts and Papers

All manuscripts will be subjected to double blind peer-review and are expected to meet the scientific criteria of novelty and academic excellence.

At least one author must register for the Conference as the paper presenter.

To facilitate scheduling, presenters must be available for the whole duration of the conference.

Submissions via email and late submissions may not be accepted.

The structured abstract should include the following:

- purpose of the research (20-40 words)
- research design, methodology or approach (35-70 words)
- (expected) research findings (35-70 words)
- originality/contribution of your research paper (35-70 words)
- most important references (2-5 references).
