

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI BERGAMO

University of
HUDDERSFIELD
Inspiring global professionals

THE HONG KONG
POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY
香港理工大學

Department of
LOGISTICS & MARITIME
STUDIES
物流及航運學系

3rd Workshop on “Aviation in Africa”

Thursday 4th June 2020

In cooperation with GARS, Bergamo University, Bremen University of Applied Sciences and The University of Huddersfield, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University hosts the 3rd Workshop on “Aviation in Africa” to be held on 4 June 2020.

PROGRAM

09:00-9.45	Welcome address and keynote lectures by Frederic Dobruszkes, ULB Brussels: Inherited city airports vs. new remote facilities: The issue of airport location in Africa
3rd GARS Online Panel Discussion
9:45-11:00 Moderator: Andrew Charlton, Aviation Advocacy, Geneva	Covid-19 and African Aviation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joan Miquel Vilardell - ALG Global • Sanjeev Gadhia - Founder & CEO ASTRAL AVIATION LTD • Ogaga Udjo – Managing Director ZA Logics • Eric Tchouamou Njoya – University of Huddersfield
11:00-11:15	Break
Presentations
11:15-12:15 Chair: Hans-Martin Niemeier, City University of Applied Sciences	Ogaga Udjo, Managing Director ZA Logics: The possible posture of African aviation post Covid-19
	Tassew Dufera Tolcha, Molde University: Effects of aviation liberalization and level of democracy on air connectivity and related economic consequences: Evidence from Africa
	Flavio Porta, University of Bergamo: The role of strategic airline alliances in Africa
12:15-13:40	Break
13:40-15:00 Chair: Achim I. Czerny, Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong	Gladys Ngbako – Managing Director iConnect Aviators Ltd: Nurturing the future aviation professional in Africa.
	Massaro, A., University of Parma. South Africa in the African Network: the case study of Port Elizabeth Airport.
	Vermooten, J., University of Johannesburg. News from the South.
	Czerny, A.I., The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. Belt and Road Initiative – the role of the African aviation market.

For registration, please click <https://polyu.hk/nqvNf>

. For further information, please check www.garsonline.de or contact anne-ly.wong@polyu.edu.hk.

Registered participants will be provided with a link to join the online workshop.