

12th November - EAC European Aviation Conference

11th and 13th November - AMEC Aviation Management Economics Conference:

The webinar organisers are pleased to set out the programme for this year's free-of-charge AMEC webinar, and to provide some additional information on this year's EAC webinar, also free, along with the registration link for all sessions.

AMEC: 11th and 13th November

Three panel sessions and the GARS General Assembly are planned:

- Covid, Air Transport and Regional Development: What do we know to guide us through the Covid crisis? 11th November, 11:00-13:00 CET

This panel provides an overview of what we know about air transport and regional development based on the three books of the Cost Action just published by Routledge. It applies this knowledge to the current crises where aviation has almost become eroded and fears arise that the wider economic benefits of air transport vanish thereby hampering regional development.

Chair: Andreas Papatheodorou (University of Aegean)

Panelists: Nicole Adler (Hebrew University), Antonio Antunes (University of Coimbra), Ofelia Betancor (Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria), Anne Graham (University of Westminster), Volodymyr Bilotkach (Singapore Institute of Technology), Gianmaria Martini (University of Bergamo) and Hans-Martin Niemeier (Bremen University of Applied Sciences)

- Research in Aviation. Two sessions with PhD students and Junior Researchers on 13th November, 9:30-11:00 CET & 11:15-12:45 CET, Chair: Benny Mantin (Université du Luxembourg)
