

Journal of Air Transport Studies

Volume 1 - No 1
January 2010

- Established in 2010, the Journal of Air Transport Studies is an open-access journal published biannually by the Hellenic Aviation Society, Greece. There are no submission or publication fees. All papers are assigned a DOI.
- A Special Issue related to EAC 2023 Research Day will be published subject to sufficient level of interest. Otherwise, submitted papers—once accepted—will be subsequently published in the context of a normal issue. The call is open only to papers presented at the Research Day.
- Interested authors should follow the available guidelines (<https://jats.aviationsociety.gr/index.php/JATS/information/authors>) to register and submit their paper, clearly stating in their cover letter that their paper is submitted in the context of the EAC 2023 Research Day.
- Dr Marina Efthymiou will act as the Editor of the Special Issue. All related queries should be directed to her (marina.efthymiou@dcu.ie) and copied to Professor Dr Andreas Papatheodorou (a.papatheodorou@aegean.gr) who is the Editor-in-Chief.
- The deadline for submissions is the 31st of December 2023!
